LOCAL SCHOOLS FUNDED TO REMEMBER DIGGERS

Member for Rankin, Craig Emerson has announced that Springwood Tri-Services RSL have received funding from the Rudd Government as part of the Saluting Their Service commemorations program.

Saluting Their Service is an important source of funding to help ex-service and community organisations to honour and remember the contribution made by Australians in times of war and conflict.

Logan City Special School, Calvary College Carbrook Campus, Woodridge North State School, Slacks Creek State School, Chatswood Hills State School and Shailer Park State School will share in more than $18,000 in funding to refurbish or upgrade existing memorials, construct new community memorials, repair vandalised memorials, preserve and display wartime memorabilia, and commemorate significant wartime anniversaries.
